British Press Revelations

LEND-LEASE MATERIAL USED TO FIGHT REDS: "CHUNGKING ARMY OUT OF WAR"

LONDON, November 2. The "Daily Herald's" Washington correspondent writes that it can now be said that informed circles in Washington have been aware of Marshal Chiang's army being virtually out of war.

Officials and others with whom he had talks have been exceptionally gloomy about the conditions in Chungking.

All of them speak of official corruption, profiteering, inflation and lack of organisation. They declare that the so-called Chinese army has never occurred and that the only army fighting is the so-called Communists, army which is not getting any Lend-Lease aid; but the Communists assert that Marshal Chiang has no part in the fight. He is vainly trying to keep the intrigues threatening his leadership.

Above all, despite tempting offers from the Japanese, he is never considering to sell out his country.

Nelson For China
Mr. Donald Nelson, former Chief of the U. S. War Production Board, is proceeding to China to aid Maj. Gen. Hurley, President Roosevelt's representative, in getting China back into the war and re-organising the Chinese war industries. Hurley is also said to be trying to persuade Marshal Chiang to co-operate with the Communists.

General Ho Yingchin, Minister of War, who is an anti-Communist may be removed. The "Daily Mail" editorially says that it may mean that the Allied High Command having more information than the general public, has already to some extent discounted Chinese assistance in the capture of the entire Philippines, which would bring

ALLIES CAPTURE JAP STRONGPOINTS

DELHI, Nov. 3. A.C.O. 'Communique'.

CHIN HILLS: Troops of the 8th Indian Division yesterday captured Japanese strongpoints on the slopes of Salam Vum, the 8,000 feet high mountain overlooking the Tiddim-Fort White road from the north-west. On the road enemy defences 12 miles from Tiddim have been cleared and our forces have pushed on, to join in a three-directional attack on the positions at "vital corner."

38th British Division yesterday consolidated positions in the Mawla area and sent patrols south of the town. When a patrol was sent along the Taping river near Myittha.

ARAKAN: Artillery and aircraft observers have been active round Butthang, where our patrols also killed a number of the enemy in an ambush. In the Kachin State, West African troops continued their operations against the Japanese covering Palewa.

NEW DELHI: Eastern Air Command yesterday scored hits on the Central Burma-Rangoon oil pipeline at Sunbawge. Dumps and enemy positions in the Chintheung region were also attacked. The important railway bridge at Dara in Siam, was heavily damaged during a low level attack on November 1.

MARATHUR'S NARROW ESCAPE

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HQ. PHILIPPINES, Nov. 3. Gen. MacArthur narrowly escaped death on October 2, during a strafing attack when a calibre bullet landed in a wall a foot from his head. This is his second narrow escape. Soon after the outbreak of the war, he was still in the Philippines, a Japanese bomb exploded killing an orderly standing two feet away from him.

Gen. MacArthur reports that American bombers sank a 7,000-ton tanker and a 1,000-ton freighter and hit a submarine. The Japanese also sank a patrol plane and a freighter and damaged two others.

The Communists reports bombers attacked Bacolod aerodrome on Negros Island, and installations at Delmonte, Mindanao, as well as targets on Celebes, Halmahera, Ambon, Timor, New Guinea, and the Bismarck-Solomon Islands. Bombers also dropped ninety tons of bombs on Cebu Island, destroying planes on the ground and shooting down one of seven interceptors.

Scheldt Pocket Completely Cleared: Advance In Walcheren Continues

LONDON, November 3. From Reuter's Special Correspondent with the 21st Army group—
The Scheldt Pocket is now completely cleared. All resistance ceased at Zeebrugge at 06.30 C. M. T. this morning. All Belgium is now liberated. Flushing is nearly clear of the enemy. Street fighting is going on in Domburg in Walcheren island.

NEW THRUST IN HURTGEN SECTOR

S.H.A.E.F. PARIS, Nov. 2. (From Reuter's Special Correspondent). The American first army, in a new attack launched on a 4,000 yards front, 13 miles south-east of Aachen, to-day advanced 2,500 yards, captured two towns and gained a 1,000 yard wide salient in the enemy ground. A very heavy artillery barrage preceded the new thrust which was made in the Hurtgen sector. Slashing through wooded country, Americans seized Vossenach and Germet, both of which were in Allied hands a fortnight ago, but were subsequently given up. Hurtgen has also been reached but not yet captured. German resistance is stiffening but the attack is going well and 300 prisoners have already been taken.

High wooded ground whose possession is a big step towards the command of the Cologne plain has already been gained. In Holland fighting is reported to be continuing in Flushing where Commandos hold rather more than half the port. The move extending their grip along the coast of Walcheren both north and south of West Kapelle. On Montgomery's eastern flank, Allied spearheads driving down two roads towards Meijel have now merged into a combined thrust and gained another 1,000 yards, within two miles of the town.

Advance In Walcheren Continues

S.H.A.E.F. PARIS, Nov. 3. General Eisenhower's "communique" to-day states: "Progress on the island of Walcheren continues. Allied forces moving from west of Kapelle have now by-

Battle Over Bombay Plan In Assembly

SIR ZIAUDDIN QUOTES JAWAHAR & ASKS, WHERE ARE PREREQUISITES OF "FREEDOM AND REMOVAL OF EXTERNAL CONTROL"

NEW DELHI, Nov. 2. The Central Assembly today took up Sir Ziauddin Ahmad's resolution recommending to the Governor-General-in-Council "not to entertain the programme of Fifteen Year Plan prepared by the capitalists of India. Discussion in it had not concluded when the House rose for the day.

WHERE ARE PREREQUISITES

Sir Ziauddin said that the plan failed in two important aspects, namely, that it failed to provide for increasing the purchasing power of the masses and for the elimination of unemployment.

Quoting Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru he said that an essential prerequisite of planning was complete freedom and independence of the country and the removal of external control.

Sir Ardeshr Dalal, he said, had told the House today that the Government of India had accepted the objectives of the 15-year plan. But had he accepted the conditions precedent to such a plan? he asked.

Referring to the position of the Rupee today Sir Ziauddin said that the purchasing power of the Rupee was five annas and asked what happened to the remaining eleven? The plan claimed to triple the income. The Finance Member, Sir Ziauddin said, could do it by issuing an ordinance that wherever there was one rupee it should be treated as three rupees. If the purchasing power was not considered an important factor, then the tripling of the income had no value. The real object should be that the purchasing power of the individual should be increased. If money was a measuring rod, then it must have a definite purchasing power.

STABILISING POST-WAR PROFITS
Sir Ziauddin proceeded to remark that it looked as though industrialists who had got a certain standard of profit during the war wanted to stabilise it after the war.

The question of agriculturists who formed 82 per cent of the population had not been examined. Land for agriculture was very important as the population of the country was increasing at the rate of five millions per annum and at the end of fifteen years the population would have increased by 75 millions.

Sir Ziauddin said that cottage industries had been neglected. He asked whether the big manufacturers would part with 50 per cent of their Proceeding Mr. Chettiar said that there were many plans besides the Bombay plan. They should examine these and take from them whatever was good from the point of view of the people of the country. Government might say that they had the money, material and men for the planning and that they should do it. But this is not the Government which is going to survive after the war," he said. It was the people who wanted to work out a plan. The Government as constituted to-day could not undertake the responsibility for such plans. It was looked upon with suspicion. Whatever it had

Chiang More Concerned With Preserving His Leadership Than Beating Japs, Says "Daily Herald"

"Daily Mail" Speaks Out
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Several British newspapers today discuss the internal situation of China and the allegations made against the Chinese Government and Marshal Chiang Kai-Shek by correspondents recently back from Chungking, following the recall of Gen. Stilwell.
"The Daily Mail" says: "It has been reported in America that the Chinese leader is more concerned with preserving his Government and leadership than with beating the Japanese, that he wishes to use Lend-Lease materials to fight Chinese Communists and looks to the Americans to defeat the Japanese."
China is included among the Big Four of the United Nations, a position to which her enormous size, vast population and potential strength entitle her. But it is clear that her aspirations towards world leadership must be vitiated so long as she herself is not a united nation.
Marshal Chiang Kai-Shek lays claim to statesmanship and now the friends of his country look up to him to prove it.

"Undoubtedly there is a strong case for reforming the Chinese Army, but the question of supplies is the governing factor in China's conduct of the war, for although American deliveries to China have reached impressive dimensions priority necessarily has been given to materials needed for the air war and the claims of the South China front have been weighted against those of the Chinese forces taking part in the liberation of Burma."

"Times" Tribute To Stilwell

Referring to the Allied advance in Burma, "The Times" says: "The thrusts towards the Irawaddy seem to have been planned by Gen. Stilwell. This distinguishes it from times difficult. Commander's recall is due to differences with the Chinese Generalissimo. But whatever they may have been in their relations there can be no question of Gen. Stilwell's military ability or of the remarkable energy with which he conducted the retreat of the remnants of the Chinese forces through the wilderness of Northern Burma to India, and with the airborne drafts from China."

It is a double-edged sword which has incurred heavy losses and won distinction in the most arduous campaign.

This strategy was designed to drive the enemy from northernmost Burma, and the latest news from the Burma front indicates that this is the major objective of the Allied Command."

CALCUTTA, Nov. 3: The Calcutta Corporation is to purchase the entire tramways undertaking and to operate the service under its own control.

Quite the most exciting world event in the coming week will be the U. S. Presidential election. It is something more than a battle between two individuals or even between two rival political parties. It is a battle between two generations, two schools of thought, two approaches to life. Mr. Roosevelt is the man who has been tested by the great Dewey is the new experiment. Many forecasts have been made and the U. S. O. W. I. is likely to issue a special report. It will tell the people of India what the election is all about. A perusal of the American papers will show that here, too, the U. S. believes that no one man should become indispensable to the country. Four years ago the U. S. had a man as a head of a nation in a country where democracy must have its safeguards. In favour of Roosevelt is the fact that he has been a man who has been by his personal influence brought to U. S. into the war at the right time against all opposition. It is the opinion that he has, as the evidence shows, had remarkable foresight on the many occasions and he has, above all, shown great leadership in the Pacific is proof that the war is being conducted on the right lines and that the U. S. is doing the most important jobs. There is no greater proof than success and the Roosevelt administration appears to have proved that it is a sound and sound policy about the election's result. It is reported that Dewey is already referring to himself as the future President. This confidence, healthy and certainly gives Mr. Roosevelt the courage to campaign more forcefully than any politician has been known to do. It is the best thing that could happen for the U. S. would be for Mr. Roosevelt to win. It is a great thing for the world. Somewhere in a world war, people are reluctant to change a leader who has done so well for them. This is a human mind. It is a valuation

BENARAS, Nov. 3: Maharaja S. C. He said that it had been till now an excellent social system for the Hindu Society in India and certainly gave Mr. Roosevelt the urge to campaign more vigorously than he has done against casteism. Move To Set Up Central Scientific Council

BOMBAY, Nov. 3. Sir R. K. Sannanugam, Chairman of the Bombay & Research Planning Committee, told the Associated Press of India today that the Committee during its Bombay session, considered a proposal to recommend to the Central Government an amendment of the Income Tax Act. on the lines of recent tax amendments in the United Kingdom. Sir Sannanugam said that research contributions by any manufacturer to any industrial association, university or college would be treated as permissible items of expenditure for income tax assessment. The Committee also considered the setting up of a central national council of scientific and industrial research consisting of 60 members of which 20 would be scientists, 20 industrialists and 20 Government nominees. The Government nominees would not all be officials, but might include six or seven administrators. The central body would be fully autonomous and the Member for Planning its chairman. A five-year plan of five crores for industrial research was also considered. Discussions included levy of cess, establishment of research associations and laboratories and also the bringing up of industry and research closer together. It is understood that the Committee has made substantial progress in its inquiry and will report by the end of January 1945.

ALL-INDIA VILLAGE INDUSTRIES ASSOCIATION

The following have consented to be in charge of the provincial organization of the Association in their respective provinces:—Dr. Gopichand Bhargava (Punjab); S. B. C. Khar (Maharashtra); S. Ganagadharao Deshpande (Karnataka); and S. Anugriha Narayan Sinha (Bihar). At a recent meeting of the Board of Management of the Association held at Sevagram, the resignation of S. Shankar Lal G. Banker as a member of the Board was accepted with regret, as it was resolved to place on record the Board's appreciation of his pioneer services in the cause of village industries. It was also decided at the meeting to arrange for the provision of training in industries based on oils and oil cake as part of the training course in oil-pressing. Approval was accorded to a proposal to start a handmade paper production centre near Bombay to be run by the Gandhi Seva Sena.

City Textile Workers Want 3 Months' Bonus

Mr. S. G. Patkar, General Secretary, the Bombay Girni Kamgar Union (B.G.K.U.) in the course of an appeal for three months' bonus for the textile workers, says: "The condition of the textile industry continues to be as good as last year. Markets have expanded and total production has gone up. The pretence of the millowners that their production has gone down due to price control has very little substance in it as the prices of cotton have considerably appreciated after the last year's profits have been maintained. The Union therefore demands, on behalf of two lakhs of textile workers of the city, a bonus of three months." The Union feels sure that the city Congressmen who have taken the welcome decision of working among the working class and winning its confidence will come forward to make this demand of the workers their own and actively support it."

G.I.P. WORKERS DEMAND INCREASE

A meeting of the workers of the G.I.P. Workshop, Farel, was held under the auspices of the G.I.P. Railwaymen's Union, Farel Branch, on Saturday. A resolution condemning the new rules by which the dearness allowance only of the workers getting more than Rs. 40 per month was increased by Rs. 2 while those getting less than Rs. 40 are not given any increment even though two thirds of the total number of workers fall into this category, was passed. The resolution demanded that a dearness allowance of Rs. 45 be given to all the workers immediately. The meeting also demanded an adjudication to settle the dispute regarding dearness allowance.

PRESERVE INTERESTS OF CLOTH TRADE

Bombay Shroffs' Appeal To Trade Commissioner
The Bombay Shroffs (Bankers) Association has sent a protest to the Trade Commissioner against the new scheme of equitable distribution of piecegoods from Bombay. The rejected recommendation of the Textile Distribution Panel to give permits only to members of the three associations namely the Bombay Country and Fancy Piecegoods Dealers' Association, the Hindustani Native Merchants' Association, and the Bombay Piecegoods Native Merchants' Association is being tried to be re-introduced. A majority of up-country dealers are not members of these Associations it would be an injustice to give permits exclusively to them only. An appeal is made to the Government to preserve the interests of the entire cloth trade.

'DRAUPADI' TO BE RELEASED TO-DAY AT ROXY AND IMPERIAL

Sushila Rani To Make Her First Appearance On Silver Screen

By T. V. P.

People expected the release of "Draupadi" during the Diwali Holidays. That expectation was not fulfilled. But it is being released to-day at two theatres viz. Roxy and Imperial. The special feature of the picture is that Mr. Baburao Patel, Producer-Director of "Draupadi" and Managing Director of New Huns Pictures introduces to picturegoers a new star in Sushila Rani, who has played the title role in "Draupadi" and has written the screen play as well.

WATCH HER MOOD
Having had an opportunity to witness theatre trials of the picture at both Roxy and Imperial, I do not hesitate to say that Sushila Rani has not merely written the screen-play and played the title role but poured her whole soul into the role of "Draupadi". As she said to an interviewer the other day for the past few months she lived Draupadi's character in her personal life; she was altogether lost in the Kumar" which was twice postponed, has been now scheduled to take next Saturday the Krishna screen. Recounting a human story of an idealist doctor who had to fight against family prejudices and social bias for his good and the good of humanity. "Dr. Kumar" presents a very entertaining melodrama, directed by Kishore Sharma.

"FARBAT PE APNA DERA"
The continued rush of crowd at Novelty in every show even in six weeks indicates that "Farbat Pe Apna Dera", Rajkamal's first social offering is destined to have a long run in the city.

This overwhelming popularity of "Farbat Pe Apna Dera", is not at all surprising, for produced with real showman spirit, it offers an ideal piece of entertainment. With a story completely out of the common and an absorbing theme, Director Shantaram with his brilliant use of camera and sound succeeds in keeping the audience spell-bound from the first fade in to the last fade out. To an intelligent picturegoer, Shantaram has provided enough food for thought in this picture, and the allegorical treatment gives a special delight to people of aesthetic taste.

"SHAKUNTALA" IN 61ST WEEK
Though it has celebrated its diamond jubilee last week, the enthusiasm even now is the same as ever for Rajkamal's "Shakuntala" now attracting crowds in 61st week at Swastik. For even now one can see the long queue of men and women at the theatre. Since the coloured copy of "Shakuntala" is being shown, the enthusiasm of the picturegoers has increased. The coloured copy which has been prepared after meticulous care is so striking in its beauty that the picturegoers get a thrill of seeing a new picture when they see it.

CASTING JOB IN "RAM SHASTRI"
A reflection of what was described in the film press as Prabhat's New Deal is seen in the Prabhat film "Ram Shastri" at Central Cinema.

Good care has been taken while selecting the supporting cast, for Sushila Rani's success would certainly have suffered for want of an adequately responsive supporting cast. In "Draupadi" she is playing a cunning Dharmaraj, embodying kingly dignity, court-bred manners, restrained deportment. In David, Shakuntal, the Machiavellian character from Mahabharat has found his exact carbon copy. Chandramohan makes the believable Dushasan explosive, effusive and dejected. Duryodhan played by K. N. Singh answers to his expected description and the same could be said about every other featured or minor player.

"Draupadi" has numerous attractions that will create their legion of admirers. A well developed story against a difficult psychological background is one of them. For another, may be mentioned the dance of Ramgopal and his team. You can multiply the list to any extent. You must stop somewhere and let the fans form their own judgments, particularly on the eve of the release.

The practised eye cannot fail to notice the almost amazing manner in which every person appearing on the screen, even in street scene or crowd sequence, fits fully in the screen. It is the common experience of filmgoers to find the very minor roles filled by non-descript men and women who make a non-descript expression and detract from the good impression made by the picture. The scrupulous attention paid to the selection of even the members of a crowd in "Ram Shastri" plays its part in creating a general impression of realism. And that result has been made possible by the creation of an efficient casting department, which is part of the Prabhat New Deal offering.

FILMISTAN FILM NEXT AT ROXY
Reports from the Filmistan studios confirm the popular expectation that "Chal Chal re Naujawan" will be released at the Roxy immediately after the two weeks for which "Draupadi" is being released there today. The popular notion is correct. The film is being released all the time and money necessary for making a picture worthy of the reputation of his team and the great tradition behind it. The brilliant record of Producer Mukerji's past achievements is a solid guarantee that the time and money spent in making this picture will turn out to be a fine investment.

TAJ
AN EVERGREEN Release

Red Army Officer Breaks World Record
MOSCOW Nov. 3: Grigori Novak, Red Army officer from Ukraine, broke the world middle-weight record for the ninth time during war lifting 129 and a half kilograms. He beat the official world middle-weight record established by the Japanese Chusui Kin in 1940 by nine kilograms. The Soviet Union now hold 27 of the 33 world weight-lifting records.

Kerala In Distress
Under the auspices of the United Kerala Relief Committee, Bombay, a public meeting of Malayalees was held at Podar College, Matunga, with Vidwan M. Kumaran in the chair. Mr. C. C. George, a Travancore State Congress Worker, described the harrowing conditions in Kerala. Many families, while possessing ration cards, lacked the means to buy rations. Famine conditions, dating back to 1939 had wrecked the physique of the people and many had to play to diseases like malaria, scabies etc. As a result, industrial and agricultural production had fallen off. The great deal and self-respecting artisans and farmers had turned vagrants. Morals, culture and education were falling to a very low level. In Kerala, we must, he said, help to establish free kitchens and medical centres.

Mr. P. Krishna Pillai, Secretary of the Kerala Committee of the Communist Party and a member of the Kerala People's Food Committee, gave a detailed account of how the various organizations were conducting relief work in Kerala. The Kisan Sabha, the Kerala Regional Trade Union Congress, the Students' Federation, the Teachers' Union and the Communist Party had formed a relief committee which had so far opened five medical relief centres. The two main points on their programme were (1) Organisation of relief kitchens for destitutes in each village and town by mobilising purely local resources. (2) Medical relief centres in greater number, for which monetary help was absolutely essential.

He deplored the lack of co-ordinated action among the organisations working for relief both in Kerala and outside, but stressed the fact that relief work and the struggle for unity must go side by side because only active participation in relief work would bring about unity.

The Sports Committee of the Bengal Club, Parel, entertained members of the Bengal and Calcutta University teams which recently won the Inter-Provincial and Inter-University Aquatic Championships at Lahore and Bombay respectively, at a tea-party at the Club premises on Friday evening.

Mr. J. C. Maitra, President of the Club, heartily congratulated the swimmers for their splendid successes in the field of aquatic. He expressed the hope that they would strive harder to beat the world records so that when the international contests are held again after the war they would be able to give a glowing account of themselves and thereby bring honour to their motherland.

In responding on behalf of the guests Mr. H. Banerjee thanked the club for the honour done to them. Then he mentioned some of the difficulties under which the swimmers in Bengal have to labour. He pointed out that there was no swimming bath of the type of the Mafatlal Pool either in Calcutta or anywhere in Bengal. Still he felt proud of the fact that swimmers like Sachin Nag have very nearly reached the world standard. With greater help and proper guidance they may beat the world records before long. After light refreshments were served the gathering dispersed late in the evening.

Benefit Match For Dadu
The Indian Football League Committee have decided to donate the entire proceeds of the match between the losing semi-finalists of the Satranjan Memorial Shield Tournament to Dadu, a pioneer and leading footballer of Bombay. He has been ailing for some time and badly needs help. It is the duty of every sportsman to extend his help and aid to a sickly brother who has devoted the best part of his life for the promotion of the game. He was undoubtedly the finest product of his time.

The match will be played at the St. Xavier's College ground, Parel, this evening at 6 p.m. The contestants are the Embarkation Headquarters, the Senior League Champions, and the South Indians 'A', a leading Indian combination.
